NEWS RELEASE

SAPD SWAT Situation and Arrest

After a six-hour standoff with San Antonio police, a man gives himself up to police peacefully.

This incident began around 2:30 this morning when police were called to Southwest General Hospital for a shooting victim. There police found a man with a gunshot wound to the head that was being transported to Wilford Hall Hospital. Police found that the victim was a passenger in a truck that had 3 occupants, the driver and 2 passengers. They were eastbound on the 400 block of Sunglo when they saw a man driving a blue Camaro. A road rage incident occurred that led to the driver of the Camaro shooting at the truck hitting the victim in the head.

A description of the suspect's vehicle was broadcast over the radio and shortly after located at 222 Sunglo. Officers attempted to make contact with someone inside the house without success. SWAT officers and hostage negotiators were notified and again communication attempts were made. At around 8:30, a man and a woman were released which left the suspect inside alone. About an hour later, the suspect came out of the house and gave himself up to police peacefully.

The victim has been identified as 23-year-old Tobie Garcia and a Travis County Corrections Officer. He was transported to Wilford Hall Hospital where is he listed in critical condition.

The suspect has been identified as Adolph Villarreal, DOB: 2-24-64, who was taken to SAPD headquarters for questioning and subsequently transported to the Magistrate's Office where he will be charged with Attempt to Commit Murder.
